DATES TO SEPTEMBER 25.

From Louisiana.

SHREVEPORT, La., Sept. [illegible]—Provost Marshal [illegible] arrested the Judge, Sheriff, District Attorney and Jury of the 10th Judicial District for trying negroes on the charge of larceny. [illegible] Superintendent of Freedmen says jurisdiction [illegible] during the existing condition of the [illegible] law belongs exclusively to his bureau. The Judge gave notice of an appeal.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 24.—The Times' Montgomery dispatch says: The Convention passed an ordinance abolishing slavery by a vote of 89 to 3. The amendment to the Constitution alters all previous relations to slaves, protecting them in freedom and personal property and provides for guarding the State against the evils arising from sudden emancipation.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 22.—Dispatches dated Montgomery, Sept. 21st, say: The Convention to-day passed an ordinance ratifying all laws passed by the Legislature during the war not inconsistent with the Constitution of the United States and the ordinances of the present Convention except that concerning the issue of treasury notes and bonds.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 23.—Gov. Wells' Proclamation calling for the election of Congressmen and State officers on the first Monday in November was issued to-day.

General Osterhaus assumed command of the Department of the Mississippi, Gen. Slocum going North.

Cholera Abating—Pardons Granted.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—The U. S. Consul at Constantinople (date Aug. 24) reports an abatement of the cholera since his last. The number of deaths August 21st, was 163. Heretofore it exceeded 4,000 in a single day.

The President granted fifteen pardons to-day, all to Virginians, including the wife of General [illegible].

Reinforcements for the Pacific Squadron—Quick Passage.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—The U. S. steamer [illegible], seven guns, sailed from port for Aspinwall yesterday, with three hundred men for the Pacific squadron.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—The New York, which arrived here from Aspinwall this morning, made the trip in six days, 11 hours and 20 minutes, the quickest passage on record. Over five hundred dollars was raised among the passengers to purchase silver plate for Captain Tenklepaugh, and $1[illegible] more for the gold passers.

The printing office of Williams & Scott was destroyed by fire this morning. Among papers printed there, were the Leader, Citizen's Dry Goods Reporter, Commercial, Bulletin, New York [illegible], Sunday Times and Courier. The edition of the Courier for this week was lost. All of these papers will suffer delays.

Another great Fenian demonstration is advertised for Wednesday evening next at Cooper's Institute. Delegates from neighboring cities are to attend.

Panic in Ireland on the Fenian Question.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—The London Times' correspondence, dated Sept. 9th, says there is an awful panic in Ireland on the Fenian question. A company of 300 or 400 Yankee Irish landed at Queenstown from one of the late steamers, and took the railroad for the interior; they were known by being better dressed than their countrymen of the same class, (wearing broadcloth,) their independent manners and their talk about the superiority of American institutions, and by having handsful of gold. They were left in couples at various stations along the road. The obvious inference is that they are friends of either the Federal Government or the Fenian organization, well supplied with money and qualified to drill the native and unsophisticated population. I know by personal observation that the people of Ireland are disloyal and that they detest the Government which has been forced upon them for centuries. I have no doubt that 100,000 Irishmen would spring to arms to-morrow if they had any friends to spring to, or any reasonable prospect of making a successful struggle for independence, but without foreign aid there is no prospect. Efficient foreign aid seems farther away than ever. In the meantime ballad singers are spouting the song of the Bold Fenian Boy at every street corner. The papers are full of stories of the international marching and drilling of Fenian hosts more than all, Yankee Irishmen or Irish Yankees with hands full of sovereigns, short swords and army revolvers who have been fighting to put down the rebellion in America, are soon going to fight to get up a rebellion in Ireland. Letters are written by Irishmen to their relatives urging them to come to a safe place before trouble begins, giving nervous people great cause of alarm.

From Virginia.

Gen. Terry, Commander of the Department of Virginia, has just given the people of that State a formidable example that martial law still prevails there, by the issuance of two orders making provision for loyal men to recover the property confiscated by the rebel Government, and by putting a stop to all legal proceedings instituted against national officers for acts done in the performance of their official duties. Hereafter, while martial law continues to prevail, the General announces that any person connected with the institution of suits of this character, will be arrested. A meeting of the Board of Regents of the Virginia Military Institute at Lexington was held on Thursday last. Gen. Custis Lee, son of R. E. Lee, formerly a member of Jeff. Davis's staff, was elected to the Professorship of mechanics and civil engineering. Major Blue, another rebel officer, was chosen Professor of natural philosophy.

The North-Western Indians.

OMAHA, Sept. 25.—Gen. Curtis, Col. Taylor and Guernsey, of the Commission to make a treaty of peace with the north-western tribes of Indians, have reached here where they were joined by Gen. Sibley and Surgeon Hood. They expect to reach Fort Sully, where a great council is to be held in about two weeks. Gov. Edmunds will join them at Yankton. The Commission has arrived at Fort Crook. From the latest intelligence it appears doubtful whether many Indians will be at Fort Sully to meet them. This may cause a delay of several weeks to Gen. Sibley, should he be at Fort Sully. W. Hubbard of the Congressional Committee is to investigate Indian affairs accompanying the Commissioners.

Gen. Hancock on the Mexican Question.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2[illegible].—General Hancock in a recent address to the Odd Fellows at Baltimore, said that the power of the Government, as shown in the late contest, is [illegible] in our countrymen [illegible] sufficiently to give light even [illegible] London and Paris. The Rio Grande is but a short [illegible], and I firmly believe [illegible] my own knowledge of the country and [illegible] therein that the Emperor [illegible] will be glad to [illegible] Mexico if he is allowed time to do so with honor. We paid some [illegible] the country after capturing its capital, and he thinks that it will not cost France less than it cost us. Every day's delay will add to the expense with [illegible] chance of compensation, for it is certain that the continued occupation of that territory by the foreign force which entered it in hostility to our interests and [illegible] will lead to war. It is now time [illegible] the arts of peace and bind up the wounds of the late rebellion. We may defer the day of retribution until we are strong again without resting under the imputation of fear.

The Emperor of the French went to Mexico when it was convenient for him, we can defer our going [illegible] until it is convenient for us but it is not to be denied [illegible]. In such case we shall have [illegible] enough in our day [illegible] the honor of our country [illegible] arms.

[illegible] letters to the Herald say Gen. Howard of Freedmen's Bureau, accompanied by Maj. Gen. [illegible] and Col. [illegible] Brown, had a long conference with Gov. Pierpont in regard to the condition of the negroes. Their opinions were freely interchanged, the result of which will be considerable amelioration of the condition of freedmen during the approaching winter.

Virginia Politics.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Dr. John R. Woods of Albemarle county, has withdrawn from the Congressional canvass alleging that he cannot take the oath; remaining contestants are A. H. Stuart, who cannot take the oath, and [illegible] Lewis, who [illegible] has withdrawn in the Prince Edward district because he could not swallow the oath. [illegible] Johns [illegible] continue in the field. He announces that he can take the prescribed oath. Political gatherings continue to be held throughout the State. The people manifest the greatest interest in public affairs.

Gloomy Reports from Mexico.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The World has a letter from Chihuahua, dated July 21st, that the Juarez cause is dead. If Juarez was able to gather into one camp all the troops that acknowledge his authority, he would not have more than 10,000 men and could not select, from all that number, ten thoroughly organized regiments. All the wealth and intelligence of Mexico are enlisted upon the side of Maximilian. There is no portion of the country which the Imperialists might not easily and successfully enter.

Organization of the Militia in South Carolina.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The steamer Champion brings Charleston dates of the 23d.

Governor Perry had issued a proclamation ordering commanders of sub districts and all officers serving within the military district of Charleston to assist in the organization of the militia force as a home institution to act under the orders of the district and sub district commanders of the United States troops for the preservation of order and the arrest of lawless characters. Each member of this militia force is required to take the oath of allegiance to the United States and shall bear a good character.

The South Carolina Convention has refused to allow the negroes to form a part of the basis of representation.

Camels on the Plains.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—An overland camel company has been organized in this city, with the object of importing to this country and using upon the Western Plains next summer a large number of camels. It is understood that J. W. Fabens is with this company and will give it the benefit of his experience in the purchase and management of the animals.

The Fenians.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The Dublin Saunders' News Letter has a second letter on the social aspect of the south of Ireland, in which he takes the view of Fenianism. Among the humbler classes there is strong feeling of discontent and dissatisfaction with the English Government, yet founded upon no one specification of complaint. The principal districts in which Fenianism prevails to a marked extent are at Dublin, Cork, Tipperary, Limerick and Sligo. Drilling at night and daily hunting matches are carried on to a great extent. A good many arms are being got together by affiliated members but their drilling is as yet very indifferent. They very seldom venture to appear together in any large bodies. Their organization is becoming better every day. Without their being the least ground for such movement, the leaders and people themselves, those who have made them their dupes, ought to be proceeded against without delay. In many places men from America, have returned with outlandish views of raising their friends and are well supplied with gold, not greenbacks.

An intelligent gentleman just returned from Chicago after an absence from Ireland of eighteen years informed me that a very strong conviction of the feasibility of the invasion of this country exists across the Atlantic, and that money to a very large amount is available but that the American Government is most sincere in its efforts to discourage the whole affair; that every opposition is given to it by the officers, and not without already producing good effect.

A petition to the French Senate, soliciting energetic diplomatic action in the case of the murder of Prince Alfred of England, by the son of a Prussian Cabinet Minister, is being signed by Asburg and all the French departments. The Courier publishes this petition with an urgent appeal to the inhabitants of the department. This looks very much as if the French Emperor meditated the execution of the long cherished French project of seizing the Provinces on the Rhine—the murder of Alfred as a pretext for the occupation of the country by the French as a means for protecting French subjects.

The Herald's Washington dispatch says orders have been issued for the dismantling of all forts around the Capital, but it will have no immediate effect in reducing the number of troops in the district. As Govt. [illegible] removed and contracted this labor will be [illegible]. Regulars are awaiting consignment, and are not considered as belonging to this district. General James Shields arrived at Washington to-day. It is represented he intends to make this city his home.

[illegible] News.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—The receipts of Internal Revenue to-day were $1,900,120 98.

A special dispatch to the Tribune says that combinations for the Speakership are already forming. Colfax leads, while Ashley of Ohio, has many friends. [illegible] Clay Smith of Kentucky, is urged with influential pertinacity, while the advocates of Henry J. Raymond are the most zealous, as they boast of their ability to swallow all the lesser candidates.

Governor Lyon of Idaho, who has been detained here to receive instructions in regard to Indian affairs, has been ordered to make a treaty with the Indians of his superintendency, and leaves for his seat of government to-morrow. The Freedmen's Society of the Southwest were recently consolidated under the title of the American Freedmen's Aid Commission, and will hereafter operate through a single organization. This step meets the cordial approval of the Freedmen's Bureau. The secretary will be located in this city, who will be in constant communication with the Bureau, and through him all communications from loyal organizations and branch societies may be brought to the attention of the proper officers of the Government, or agents of the Commission in rebel States.

MONTGOMERY, Sept. 25.—An ordinance declaring the act of secession null and void was unanimously adopted by the Alabama State Convention, after having been debated an entire day.

WASHINGTON, September 26.—A special to the Chronicle, dated Montgomery 24th, says no vote has been taken concerning the subject of State debt. The subject has been referred to a committee, who will report on it in a day or two. Everything is going on very satisfactory for the cause of the Union.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—A Washington special to the Herald says: The United States District Court, Judge Underwood presiding, convened to-day at Alexandria. District Attorney Chandler made an eloquent speech and argument in favor of a liberal policy respecting a large number of confiscation cases on the docket. The Judge before adjournment made the following decision: That in cases where a pardon has been granted and where the amnesty has been taken as provided in the President's proclamation, all suits for property under the confiscation law are dismissed on payment of costs. A large number of citizens interested in this ruling were present in court and they immediately came forward and paid the costs that had accrued in suits begun against them.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The five mile four oared boat race for a stake of $2,000 and the championship of America, between Bigelow Bros. of this city and Ward Bros. of Newburg, New York, took place yesterday on the Hudson river, opposite Sing Sing, and was won by the Wards in 32 minutes and 40 seconds, they beating their opponents two seconds.

A special dispatch to the Times dated Washington, Sept. 24th, says the rush of pardon seekers to-day was not as great as usual. Among those who have for weeks daily sought a personal audience with the President to press applications [illegible] Pope Walker, first Secretary of War of the rebel Confederacy, who sent the famous order from Montgomery to Gen. Beauregard at Charleston to open fire on Fort Sumter. He is still waiting and is likely to continue to do so.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Captain Charles M. Marshall, one of our wealthiest and most [illegible] merchants, died yesterday.

The United States steam propeller [illegible], running between New York and Providence, [illegible] at four o'clock yesterday in the Sound [illegible] miles from this city, with the sloop Jane [illegible], cutting the latter nearly in two. The [illegible] had on board three ladies, two men and children. One woman, Sarah D. Iver[illegible] Jefferson, and two children were drowned.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—The Herald's Washington dispatch says the Attorney General [illegible] not to consider applications of pardon [illegible] from individuals who have domiciled out of the Territorial limits of the United States. [illegible] persons must first return and submit themselves in good faith to the action of the [illegible]. The practical working of the rule will [illegible] to favor the examination of many [illegible] rebel and refugees.

The Daily Oregonian.

[illegible] OF THE STATE

TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER [illegible]

A [illegible] JUDGE.—It appears that they have a Judge [illegible] in California, whose legal learning and judicial acumen are fairly up to the standard of Justice Dogberry and of Robert Shallow, Esquire. It will be remembered that a gang of robbers and thieves calling themselves Confederate soldiers some time ago stopped and plundered a stage coach on the road to Virginia City. The offenders were pursued by officers, when one of the robbers turned and shot the Sheriff dead. The person who did the shooting is still in custody, but his accomplices in the robbery and murder were lately set at liberty by Judge Dogberry—we mean McKee of San Jose, because the Court held that the act being committed by Confederate soldiers was an offence against the United States, and therefore a State Court had no jurisdiction over the case. Certainly this is a most extraordinary procedure. These cut throats pretended to hold commissions from Captain Ingraham, Confederate States Army, who was authorized by the rebel junto at Richmond to raise troops for guerrilla service in California. Therefore, says the learned Judge, no offence was committed of which the State Courts can have cognizance! Here is the first recognition which the late Confederacy has received. It was reserved for a California District Court to declare, months after the collapse of the rebellion, that the "Confederate Government" had a legal, de facto existence. This is the first judicial declaration of the kind, and we may safely suppose it will be the last. But it is curious to observe that according to the Santa Clara Judge highway robbery and murder are no longer offences against the laws of California. We never knew before that California was once a member of the C. S. A. It will certainly gratify his excellency, President Davis, to be told that a Court of one of our Pacific States still recognizes him as the lawful Chief Magistrate of a considerable part of the people of the United States.

LOOKING FOR "PEACE."—A portion of the immigrants now arriving in this State acknowledge themselves "subjugated Confederates," and say they are anxiously hunting for peace. Peace is a good thing, and we hope our newly arrived guerrilla Democrats will continue to seek for it in all earnestness. It is an article which they seem to look for much more longingly now than they did a few years ago when they were committing the most atrocious outrages on the people of Kansas, or a year or two later when they sided with Claib Jackson and Pap Price in the endeavor to throw their State—Missouri—into the clutches of Jeff Davis. It is very interesting to see this class of persons now searching for a country where they can have peace. This conduct on their part augurs well for the future, since it indicates that they will hardly attempt a repetition of the old experiment of bluster, halters, bowie knives, revolvers and guerrilla war, all of which has cost them so dear.

THE UNCONQUERED.—Carl Schurz writes as follows from Savannah to the Boston Advertiser about the "unconquered" braggarts of the South who are still in a furious mood:

But there is another class of people here, mostly younger men, who are still in the swearing mood. You can overhear their conversations as you pass them on the streets, or even sitting near them on the stoop of a hotel. They are "not conquered," but only "overpowered." They want to fight the war over again, and they are sure in five years we are going to have a war bigger than any we have seen yet. They are impatient to get rid of "this d—d military 'despotism.'" They will show us what stuff Southern men are made of. They will send their own men to Congress, and show us that we cannot violate the Constitution with impunity. They have a rope ready for this or that Union man, when the Yankee bayonets are gone. They will show the Northern interlopers, that have settled down here to live on their substance, the way home. They will deal largely in tar and feathers. They have been in the country, and visited this and that place, where a fine business is done in the way of killing niggers. They will let the nigger know what freedom is, only let the Yankee soldiers be withdrawn. Such is their talk. You can hear it every day if you have your ears open. You see their sullen, frowning faces at every street corner. Now, there may be much of the old Southern braggadocio in this, and I do not believe that such men will again resort to open insurrection. But they will practice private vengeance whenever they can do it with impunity, and I have heard sober minded Union people express their apprehension of it. This spirit is certainly no evidence of true loyalty.

LETTER FROM NEW YORK.

FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT

NEW YORK, Aug. 31, 1865.

THE BROOKLYN NAVY YARD

A visit to the Brooklyn Navy Yard shows that, although the war for the suppression of the rebellion has terminated, a large amount of work is still in progress at this important naval establishment. There are at the yard over sixty vessels, including those building and repairing. The vessels in progress of building are the large double turreted iron-clads Kalamazoo and Miantonomah, the steam frigate Quinebaugh, Maschello and Java, and the steam sloop Ontario. Among the vessels receiving repairs is the Brooklyn, now on the dry dock. A new dry dock, to be the largest in the country, is in course of construction, as well as a new naval storehouse, two hundred and fifty feet long, one hundred and fifty feet wide and sixty feet high. There is also much other work going on, keeping employed a large number of men.

CRIMES AND ACCIDENTS

Are the leading sensations now a days, and scarce a day passes but the public sensibilities are shocked by the perpetration of some horrible crime or the occurrence of some terrible accident. Single, double and triple murders, and followed or preceded by boiler explosions and collisions on railroads. The last was a collision on the Long Island railroad almost within sight of the city. A train going east was behind its time half an hour; one coming west, instead of being detained on a turnout according to regulation, was pushed forward by the conductor on the track belonging to the eastern bound train. A collision, of course, was the result, followed by the killing of five or more passengers, and maiming of some twenty five or thirty others. The plea of accident, or nobody to blame, will not do in this case. The crime of carelessness and neglect of duty on this road is too well established. An occurrence like this has been expected for some time, from the fact that the trains scarcely ever run on time. These facts will be brought out in the investigation, and there will be a demand for punishment so emphatic that it will hardly be disregarded.

HON. MONTGOMERY BLAIR

Has just thrown a large sized bomb shell into the political camp of the Radicals. He made a speech at Clarksville, Maryland, a few days since, in which he shows that Stanton once urged coercion, Seward opposed coercion and Holt blocked efforts to stop the rebellion. Stanton and Holt were in Buchanan's cabinet and Seward was in the Senate. Owing to the position assumed by each of these men many Southerners, that were Union at heart, were driven to take their places in the ranks of the Secessionists and devote energies which they would gladly have devoted to Union to the cause of secession. If they talked of Union they were pointed to the positions occupied by these men, one of whom (Stanton) said the Southerners were right, and hoped they would stand fast. Another (Seward) opposed coercive measures, and Holt, Secretary of War, prevented the Government from making any warlike demonstration. Thus these men, Blair says, were deserted by the Government, and were induced to believe, in fact, that the Government wanted the States to go out of the Union. When they learned the contrary was the case it was too late for them to do anything. The South was in arms and they were [illegible] bodily into the war. Blair says there is a disposition manifest to inflict punishment upon these men who were so cruelly deceived. The charges Mr. Blair makes are not new, but they are put in more positive shape and form, and the whole speech casts a flood of light upon the secret history of the commencement of the rebellion.

KETCHUM THE FORGER

is caught. It appears he did not leave the city at all, but was [illegible] and they were delivered at the house in which he [illegible] the wife, the family [illegible] track of by detectives and arrest at last Friday night. [illegible]

A man named George Gladwin, a carpenter by trade, [illegible] was arrested in New Haven and brought to this city on charge of forging [illegible] from a letter directed to Mr. Lowbridge [illegible] drawn by Duncan, Sherman & Co., of No. [illegible] Wall street, on the Manhattan Company. On his arrival here he confessed to the police that he had recently succeeded in procuring from the safe of the St. Nicholas Hotel, where he was stopping, a package containing two hundred and four thousand dollars worth of [illegible] and Fort Wayne Railroad bonds, by forging the name of the person to which the package was addressed. All the bonds were recovered, as well as a considerable amount of jewelry which [illegible] and he was committed for an examination which was expected to take place to day.

A fire [illegible] South and Water streets, near Catherine. Among the property [illegible] was a United States bonded warehouse filled with tea and coffee valued at half a million of dollars.

On Friday afternoon last a fire occurred in the pyrotechnic establishment of Mr. [illegible] Jones, on first floor of No. [illegible] street, [illegible] the explosion of some of the fireworks. The upper [illegible] occupied as a [illegible] manufactory by Harris & [illegible], in which were employed several girls, and on the alarm being given they hurried down stairs. The flames rapidly extended to the second floor, and in endeavoring to escape one of the young women, named Catharine [illegible], and a man [illegible] The man was [illegible] burned about the face and body, but the young woman met a frightful death, being burned to a crisp. The first and second floors of the building were destroyed and considerable damage [illegible] stock in the upper floors.

[illegible] recently a desperate fight occurred on the corner of Ridge and Delancey streets between [illegible] companies while they were running to a fire. A large force of police was called out [illegible] to restore order, which they did not [illegible] several persons were badly injured, one of whom subsequently died. Pistols, clubs, stones, trumpets and other weapons were freely used. Several of the belligerents were arrested. Both the engine companies have since been disbanded.

CANADIAN AFFAIRS

A Quebec correspondent of the Herald states that the Canadians have already, to a certain extent, anticipated the proceedings which their delegates to the Detroit Commercial Convention [illegible] would be the result of the non renewal by the United States of the Reciprocity treaty. This was nothing less than the [illegible] open of their ports along the frontier and encouraging smuggling. Smuggling is now carried on to an almost unlimited extent along the frontier, and it is said with the knowledge and connivance of the Canadian Ministry. The correspondent describes the condition of the province as very unpromising. The taxes and other burdens are so heavy and the crop and trade prospects so poor that thousands of the inhabitants have already sold out and emigrated to the Far West. Real estate has fallen seventy five per cent in value within the past eighteen months, and it is estimated that in the city [illegible] alone there are thirteen hundred empty tenements.

THE ALLEGED MUNFORD DEFALCATION

Proves to have been no defalcation at all. The case came formally before the Court on Wednesday, when it was proven by the receiving teller that on the very day on which Mr. Munford was said to have drawn a fraudulent check for a much less amount, he deposited in the same bank (the Mechanics') $251,000. The prosecution abandoned the case and Mr. Munford was discharged after having undergone an incarceration of two weeks in the Tombs. The bank seems to have been at fault in not knowing the state of its own affairs, and Munford to have been an ill used man.

GLADWIN THE FORGER

While awaiting trial tells a singular story. In 1861 he enlisted in a Connecticut regiment. He received letters regularly from his wife until he was taken prisoner on the Mississippi. Twenty two months elapsed before again hearing from her, and he had considerable difficulty in finding her, as she had changed her name and become an inmate of a house of ill fame in Springfield, Mass. After a long interview he forgave the abandoned creature, and sent her to his cousin's place in the country, where he was to join her in ten days. This occurred about the 8th of August. The same night he left for New York, next going to Bridgeport, where he remained until the 13th, when he went to New Haven, and the next day received the check of H. Trowbridge which he subsequently used. In New Haven he asked a hack driver to find him a girl to go to New York for two or three days. The hackman said he knew one just from the country; she was [illegible]. The girl was produced and went to New York with Gladwin, where the two stopped at the St. Nicholas. There he, by stating his name to be Aaron Smith, obtained possession of the bonds of a western railroad to the amount of over $200,000, and after disposing of a portion of his check for [illegible] and receiving the balance [illegible] sent the girl home. A day or two afterwards he went after his wife, gave her $10.00 to keep for him, carried her to Hartford, and there she ran away with another fellow named Kimlock, with whom she had lived while her husband was in the army. He was soon after arrested. His name he says is not Gladwin, but he will not tell what it is at present. [illegible] is a great rascal, is still at large, who [illegible] him to the deed for the commission of which he (Gladwin) will have to pay the penalty.

MEDICAL NOTICE.

DR. N. DAVIDSOHN,

RESPECTFULLY INFORMS THE PUBLIC OF Portland and vicinity of his recent arrival in the city, with the intention of taking up a permanent residence at this progressive place. Dr. D., late Physician and Surgeon in the United States army, is an honorary graduate, a practical and experienced Physician, Surgeon and Accoucheur, and in virtue of his theoretical and practical knowledge, claims public trust and confidence. He requests suffering humanity, afflicted with chronic or acute disorders, to apply to him immediately, that the medical skill he professes to possess may be made apparent and beneficial to the public.

The Doctor will confidentially receive and respond to any application forwarded in writing.

His fees are usually moderate, and will be reduced to individual circumstances.

Dr. D. also respectfully informs the poorer class of humanity that his office will be open for the reception of poor sufferers only every Monday and Thursday, between the hours of 9 and 11½ A. M. Sincere medical advice will be granted to them gratis, and faithful attendance to obstetrical cases whenever required, Free of all Charges.

He speaks the English, French and German languages fluently.

Particular attention paid to FEMALE DISORDERS.

Early Days a Learned [illegible] — On the wharf at this city one day last week a [illegible] this happened to meet being attached to a [illegible] in early days were very [illegible] of the city of Portland. The [illegible] when the [illegible] strange [illegible] of usefulness will always [illegible] comers to be interested [illegible] who came around Cape Horn in the [illegible] long voyage [illegible] accidents much more unusual than any occurring at the present time [illegible] One incident [illegible] many in our midst [illegible] the Willamette was a fine [illegible] the benefit of the [illegible] this boy became the pet of the [illegible] of the steamer took an interest in the [illegible] Betty. Arriving at Portland Betty was [illegible] and had full run [illegible] city. No ordinance [illegible] roaming amid the [illegible] (Couch's Addition [illegible] no wharves, or landings [illegible] to walk by the side of the [illegible] from which the craft that [illegible] section had taken [illegible] Betty was [illegible] all she surveyed [illegible] on board the Willamette. At [illegible] steamer from Astoria [illegible] the river waiting [illegible] the noise of the whistle [illegible] landing. She was always [illegible] gang plank was the [illegible] her right. Betty was not forgotten [illegible] of last week, but [illegible] now takes us where.

Prosperous Swede — We state [illegible] among the lately arrived immigrants were [illegible] five of the [illegible] described by [illegible] Ashley. [illegible] called out the sympathies of some [illegible] In [illegible] the boy who [illegible] will live to kill some [illegible] before the trouble [illegible] a new [illegible] of clothes. His father [illegible] and the free use of a barn [illegible] their himself and family [illegible] until after the June election. Speaking of the [illegible] a high official dignitary [illegible] thereafter, asserted that "living on that farm [illegible] at enough for any animal [illegible] positively stated that the owner of that land not long [illegible] compelled to borrow a horse and ride out to the [illegible] he found it necessary to let down the [illegible] order that the birds might get [illegible] had been there so long [illegible] for them to fly over [illegible] and further states that he was passing [illegible] weeks ago when he discovered sitting [illegible] the bare [illegible] the day fingers of its [illegible] it was growing for dear life. [illegible] shows that the poor animal was in a starving [illegible] and it will certainly be punishment enough [illegible] live on the same farm until election day, and he may then be too poor to vote.

Camp Lyon. — The Owyhee Avalanche gives the following sketch of Camp Lyon, and tribute to Capt. [illegible] and Lt. Hill of this city, among others: Camp Lyon is named after the lamented General who fell at the battle of Wilson's Creek, Missouri, is situated on [illegible] Creek [illegible] at the junction of the road leading from Ruby City with that of the California and Idaho stage road. The garrison is composed of [illegible] and D of the 1st Oregon Cavalry, and Company A 1st Oregon Infantry with Capt Powell, 1st Oregon Infantry [illegible] officer. The other officers are Captain White and Lt Pepoon 1st Oregon Cavalry [illegible] The manner in which these officers have [illegible] to protect that region of country from the [illegible] of marauding Indians and the promptitude with which, in numerous instances they have pursued and [illegible] these Bedouins of the desert deserves com[illegible] Lt. Pepoon, Quartermaster, is providing [illegible] of hay and wood for use during the coming win[illegible] The troops are busily engaged at this time in build[illegible] and altogether the camp has a lively ap[illegible] It is beautifully situated, and just in the [illegible] It is designed to make a winter [illegible] against the Indians when they may be [illegible] found and captured. This is as it should be [illegible] may be done during winter, when the[illegible] have gone into their winter lodges than during [illegible] summer campaigns."

Narrow Escape — Yesterday two boys fastened their [illegible] the guards of the ferry boat when crossing [illegible] and when about fifty yards from the east shore, [illegible] The boat being a very small one swamped im[illegible] and the boys, unable to swim, were about [illegible] Mr John Knott jumped in and succeeded [illegible] them, and held them until Mr H Cason [illegible] the spot in time to save all from a watery grave [illegible] were all nearly exhausted. Mr Knott's clothes [illegible] torn off him. Mr K deserves much credit [illegible] courage and daring in thus risking his life in the [illegible] of the boys, who were perfect strangers to him [illegible] not learn their names.

Treasure Shipment — The steamer left last evening for San Francisco direct taking $277,000 treasure shipped by Dam Saw Mill. — The new steam saw mill at [illegible], west of this city, has been put in operation [illegible] of sawing 20,000 feet of lumber a day. The [illegible] in that neighborhood is said to be the best in [illegible] by the boat builders, who have used it [illegible] cedar and fir, in the vicinity of the mill is also of [illegible] quality. A lumber yard has been established in [illegible] at the corner of Montgomery and Sixth streets [illegible] their card to day.

Police Court. — Dr. Davidsohn charged with assault [illegible] cause continued until to day at 1 o'clock [illegible] Summers, for striking a Chinaman, was [illegible] and costs, the charge against him being for vio[illegible] ordinance No 228. Patrick Gill also violat[illegible] No. 228, was sentenced to pay a like fine [illegible] F. C. Payne, ditto ditto, held to answer to [illegible] Jos. Ross for kicking a door on First [illegible] to contribute to the City Treasury.

Jury List. — Judge Hoffman and two fresh ideas have [illegible] the jury list, as prescribed by the Code [illegible] in the Recorder's Court, when sitting as a Jus[illegible] Court, for the remainder of the present year. The [illegible] been selected from the bona fide citizens [illegible] and hence forth when parties in litigation to [illegible] their cause to a jury they can rest as[illegible] that the jury will be composed of the very best in [illegible]

Apples. — Our table was last evening loaded [illegible] fifty of the finest apples we have seen this [illegible] from the orchard of the Gleason Brothers, Ma[illegible] county, and which were as good as they looked [illegible] of these apples will be entered at the Fair [illegible] will be good that takes the premium over them.

[illegible] John S. Potter, a quondam theatrical [illegible] of this place, in a notice dated Great Salt Lake City, Sept 6th, calls for subscribers to a new Theatre. The stock is divided (on paper) into 100 shares of $200 each, to be paid in ten per cent installments as the work [illegible] We hope John will have better success as a [illegible] than he has had as a manager.

[illegible] Saw Mill for Belfast. — A new saw mill, with [illegible] has just been completed by David Monnas[illegible] at the Portland Foundry for I. E. & A. H. Gleason [illegible] It will be taken away this morning and [illegible] heavy freight wagons.

[illegible] of the Steamer. — The freight of the steamer [illegible] consisted of 1,000 boxes of apples, [illegible] bales of [illegible] tons of merchandise.

[illegible] — The fare by stage from Salt Lake [illegible] been reduced to $100 in greenbacks.

State Constitution Adopted in Colorado

St. Louis, Sept 26. Incomplete returns from Colorado Territory indicate the adoption of the State Constitution by a very large majority. The clause authorizing negro suffrage is defeated.

Worcester, Mass, Sept 28. The Democratic State Convention to day nominated Gen. D. N. Couch, of Boston, for Governor.

European News — The Fenians

Halifax, Sept 28. — The Cuba from Liverpool the 16th and Queenstown the 17th has arrived. An extraordinary special meeting of the Atlantic Telegraph Company was held at London on the 14th. The Directors presented a report setting forth the results of their late effort and their sanguine expectations for the future deduced therefrom, expressing a determination to press forward with the work, and announcing that they had already entered into a contract for renewed operations. Under this contract the Telegraph Construction Company undertake for the sum of £500,000, to manufacture and lay down a cable next year. If successful, but not otherwise, they are to have in shares and cash a profit of 20 per cent on this cost. They also undertake without further cost whatever to go to sea with such cable to complete the present broken cable and use their best endeavors to that end. This contract requires the Atlantic Company should raise a minimum of £600,000 sterling, in cash upon which new capital bonds will be issued to those holders who are entitled to the same, for the amounts that have been paid on the old shares. The report was unanimously adopted, the question of raising the cable being left to the final decision of another meeting to be called October 12th.

Upon invitation of Lord Lurry, Lord Lieut. of the County of Cork, a meeting of more than 150 magistrates took place recently in Cork to consider the security of the public peace as menaced by Fenian movements. The proceedings were private, but the Cork Examiner says they resulted in the unanimous adoption of a memorial to the Government praying for an immediate increase of the police and military force of the country. The fact of secret organization dangerous to the public peace, is generally admitted. It was supposed the adoption of the proposed steps would be sufficient to maintain order.

On Friday evening, the 15th, in Dublin, a large force of police proceeded from the Castle to Parliament street, where they divided in two parties, one at either end of the street. Some detectives then knocked at the door of the paper called the Irish People, an alleged Fenian organ, and were refused admission. The police then broke open the door and took possession of the premises and secured twelve or fifteen prisoners who are said not to be compositors, and conveyed them to the Castle. The police then retained possession of the premises. There is no information as to the cause of the seizure, but there are rumors of concealed arms and documents with the names of the leaders. These reports are not generally credited. The police kept the street clear and there was no disturbance. The Irish People is a weekly journal and it was about to be published that evening.

The Freeman's Journal of the 16th announces a British fleet off Cape Clear. Some vessels were hovering around the coast to the great consternation of the people who, however, were satisfied on hearing they were the Queen's ships. The Eagle says now that help is at hand, in the event of a Fenian invasion, those inclined to sympathize with the rebels are rather disheartened.

At the quarterly meeting of the British Freeman's Aid Association, held at Bristol, G. C. Haigh of New York, Rev. Dr. Sterns of Kentucky and Rev. Dr. Samuel Martin of the American Missionary Association, attended as a deputation from America.

A correspondent of the London Times, at Biarritz, notes the discovery of a reported plot against the Emperor either on the way to San Sebastian or on the return to Biarritz. The parties concerned in it were aliens, including the brother or cousin of Orsini. Precautionary measures were taken and the Queen of Spain insisted on accompanying the Emperor and Empress to the Railroad Station, notwithstanding it was night, in order that she might share any risk run by her guests.

The cholera has increased so much at Marseilles that the Mayor summoned a meeting of physicians to adopt measures of relief.

The Times' American correspondent represents that the Fenians in America were collecting large funds, sending money to Ireland and spending money in America to aid in the purchase [illegible] A Dublin express of this [illegible] says that after the arrest of Irish people last night, orders were issued to the Irish platoons at the military [illegible] to be ready for the [illegible] any attempt to rescue them by the populace. [illegible] police constable was also stationed in each telegraphic office for the purpose of stopping any messages relating to Fenianism.

Queenstown, Sept 17. The Irish police continue to arrest Fenians. The number of prisoners is very large. Among others is a person said to be a captain in the American army, in whose [illegible] found. WISTAR'S BALSAM
—OF—
HAS BEEN USED FOR NEARLY HALF A CENTURY,
WITH THE MOST ASTONISHING SUCCESS IN CURING
Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Liver Complaint, Bronchitis, Difficulty of Breathing, Asthma, and every affection of the THROAT, LUNGS, AND CHEST INCLUDING EVEN CONSUMPTION.

There is scarcely one individual in the community who wholly escapes, during a season, from some one, however slightly developed, of the above symptoms — a neglect of which might lead to the last named, and most to be dreaded disease in the whole catalogue. The power of "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree over this class of complaints is well known; so great is the good it has performed, and so great the popularity it has acquired.

In this preparation, besides the virtues of the Cherry, there are commingled with it other ingredients of like value, thus increasing its value ten fold, and forming a Remedy whose power to soothe, to heal, to relieve, and to cure disease, exists in no other medicine yet discovered.

The unequalled success that has attended the application of this medicine in all cases of

has induced many physicians of high standing to employ it in their practice, some of whom advise us of the fact under their own signatures. We have space only for the names of a few of these: —

S. H. Finley, M. D., San Francisco, Cal.
E. Boynton, M. D., Exeter, Me.
Alexander Hatch, M. D., China, Me.

H. D. Martin, M. D., Mansfield, Pa.

The proprietors have letters from all classes of our fellow citizens, from the halls of Congress to the humblest cottage, and even from beyond the seas, for the fame and virtue of Wistar's Balsam have extended to the uttermost bounds of the earth, without any attempt on our part to introduce it beyond the limits of our own country.

TO CALIFORNIANS AND OREGONIANS.

After October 1, 1863, all genuine WISTAR'S BALSAM of WILD CHERRY for the Pacific Coast will be enclosed in a new wrapper which will bear the printed names of both Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston, Mass., and John D. Park, Cincinnati, Ohio, as well as fac simile of the signatures of "I. Butts," "Sanford & Park," and "H. Wistar, M. D."

JUST RECEIVED PER BARK JANE A. FALKIN[illegible] a large Assortment of Doors, Windows and Blinds of EASTERN MANUFACTURE, for sale by jo[illegible]tf MILLARD & VAN SCHUYVER

[illegible] — We glean the following [illegible] of interest from a late number of the [illegible]

The machinery for the [illegible] mill is [illegible] until all the [illegible] [illegible] and the [illegible] the agent satisfactorily. The building will [illegible] eighty four by [illegible] feet [illegible] graded, and the [illegible] [illegible] the work [illegible] will be ready to move [illegible] the coming week.

Mr [illegible], Superintendent of the Morning Star mill informs us that they intend [illegible] crushing a pile of ore from the Morning Star ledge, estimated at six hundred [illegible] few days. The folks "down below" may [illegible] out for a shipment of silver bricks within a month or so. In addition to the rock breaker [illegible] mentioned last week, eight more stamps are to be attached to the mill this fall, necessary machinery being en route for that purpose. When the contemplated improvements are completed the mill will have a crushing capacity of at least twenty stamps.

We were shown [illegible] three hundred pounds [illegible] ore this week at the mill of Messrs [illegible] Vass, which came from the Vass ledge. This ledge is situated a few hundred feet above the mill [illegible] and has a shaft [illegible] the depth of forty feet, at which depth the proprietors inform us the ledge is about two and a half feet wide. The three hundred pounds sample alluded to is about as fine looking silver ore as we have seen in the country. The proprietors intend to commence crushing rock from the Jordan Company's claim on the Morning Star the first of the forthcoming week.

The Jackson mill at the mouth of Flint gulch, is progressing finely and will soon be ready to run two stamps. The complement of ten stamps will hardly be completed this fall. We understand the proprietors of a ledge entitled the Nevada have made arrangements to have their rock crushed at this mill. The mill is admirably located for getting quartz from any of the ledges in the [illegible] mountain.

Mr Shoenbar has been sorely delayed in the building of his mill, on account of the want of lumber. However the prospects for getting up steam within a week or so are flattering to say the least. Mr Shoenbar has plenty of rock in view with which to keep the mill running when he does get started.

SENATOR WILLIAMS IN IOWA — Our able Senator, Judge Williams, has lately been in Iowa stirring up the Copperheads of that State. We find in the Gate City, a paper published at Keokuk an account of a Union meeting at which the Senator made a telling speech. The Gate City of August 28th says:

The Union Rally and Mass Meeting at the Junction Saturday was one of the largest and most successful political meetings ever held in the county. The soldiers and loyal men and women of Old Lee turned out in force. Our own city was well and largely represented, as was also Fort Madison, and indeed the entire county. There was complete harmony and unanimity. No dissensions in the councils of patriots. Cops must have taken to their holes, for not even a hiss was heard. The tremendous outpourings of thousands, when they had anticipated hundreds, was a complete extinguisher upon the Butternuts. And the spirit of all present was that of the earnestness and enthusiasm which are the harbinger of glorious victory.

The address of Senator Williams was one of the ablest and most successful efforts that it has ever been our pleasure to hear from stump or platform. Concise without indefiniteness, full without prolixity, earnest without passion, and ornate without redundancy, symmetrical in structure and elaborate in finish, it was a complete exposition of the issues before the people, of our present national status, and of the relative claims of the Democratic and Union parties for popular support. If we do not notice this able address further it is because we hope to lay it before our readers shortly in complete form.

THE SITUATION IN KENTUCKY—THE POPULAR VOTE, ETC.—The returns of the late election in Kentucky exhibit very large "radical" gains. Louisville correspondence of August 22d says:

The official majorities of Rousseau and Smith are 1,047, 1,245. Their districts gave McClellan respectively 3,952, 2,620 majority. This county (including city) gives Rousseau 2,070 majority; the same in 1864, Mr Lincoln 2,055 votes, and in 1860 100 votes. Mr Lincoln's entire Kentucky vote in 1860, was 1,464. "Abolition" Neale (Union candidate) for State Treasurer, is doubtless elected by at least 1,000 or 2,000 majority over "Conservative" Garrard, and the Frankfort Commonwealth thinks the difference in the aggregate popular vote for Congressmen under 3,000. The "Democrats" may have a bare working majority of two in the Senate, and sixteen at least nominal majority in the House—that is, 59 to 42. The last House stood 68 "Opposition" to twelve "Union," and the Senate 26 "Opposition" to 12 "Union." The Lexington District from which you hear such a "Democratic" howl of "military interference," went "Democratic" by 1,678 for Shanklin over Fry. It gave McClellan 4,144 majority. Reports from many anti amendment counties are to this effect. If the illegal votes had been excluded, this county would have undoubtedly have gone for the amendment. But every person was allowed to vote, in some precincts without even taking the oath.

ANDERSONVILLE CRUELTIES.—Before the Wirtz Military Commission, Mr. Thomas C. Alcock who was a prisoner at Andersonville, testified as to Wirtz's searching and taking from him $150 in gold and $250 in greenbacks, and a breastpin and ring, which were never returned. He saw Wirtz kill a weak man by shooting him with a revolver merely because he asked to go out to take a little fresh air. The witness, for remonstrating against this act of cruelty was fastened with a ball and chain, but got loose and made his escape. Sergeant Corbett gave his account of the Andersonville prison, representing it to be a depository of filth. Men were lying around the swamp there in the most horrible condition, and one man died he believed, from the effects of lice. Maggots and flies gathered in their sores. The food was insufficient, even when the prisoners received double rations. The witness testified as to his own experience of being chased by bloodhounds. Two brothers, named Brown having been examined and testified to instances of cruelty by Captain Wirtz, the Counsel for the prisoner, taking offence at some remarks made by the Court, abandoned the case and retired. The Judge Advocate was then charged with the conduct of the offence and the Court adjourned.

GEN CONNOR HAS A FIGHT.—A dispatch dated at Deer Creek station, Sept 19th states that Gen. Connor had a fight with the Arapahoes taking from them five hundred head of stock. A later dispatch from Fort Laramie states that he attacked a large Arapahoe village Aug 28th routing the Indians with great slaughter destroying their village with all their winter's provisions capturing five hundred Indians and six hundred horses. Some of Connor's men and officers were killed or wounded.

KENTUCKY ELECTION.—In 108 counties in Kentucky returned to the Secretary of State the vote for Treasurer is as follows: William L. Neale (Union) [illegible] [illegible] Garrard (Opposition) 41,661. Neale's majority [illegible]. Two counties, Ballard and Wolfe are yet to be heard from. It is reported that Garrard has a majority of 12 votes in Wolfe and between 1,000 and 1,200 in Ballard.

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts, gives strength to the digestive organs, brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

Mercurial Diseases.

Salivation, Feeling of Weariness, Rotting of Bones, Bad Complexion, Aches in Bones, Depressed Spirits.

Constitution Life Syrup purges the system entirely of all the evil effects of Mercury, removing the Bad Breath, and curing the Weak Joints and Rheumatic Pains which the use of Calomel is sure to produce. It hardens Spongy Gums and secures the teeth as firmly as ever.

Constitution Life Syrup

Eradicates, root and branch, all Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, like

Ulcers, Pimples, Blotches,

And all other difficulties of the kind, which so much disfigure the outward appearance of both males and females, and often making them a disgusting object to themselves and their friends.

Constitution Life Syrup

CURES ALL SWELLING OF THE GLANDS, either of the Face, Neck, or Female Breast.

As a general Blood Purifying Agent, the Life Syrup stands unrivalled by any preparation in the world.

Constitution Life Syrup

Is the Poor Man's friend and the Rich Man's blessing. Buy it, take it, and be cured. It is universal in its effects.
